

nature in the city

FREE Family-Friendly Discovery Walks

Launch Event

Apr. 19, 2–4 pm, Guelph Public Library

Interactive displays by Nature Guelph EcoLeaders and a Sciensational Ssnakes!! demonstration.

Slime & Scales

Apr. 26, 7–8:30 pm, The Arboretum

What lives under rocks, in the mud or in the water?
Meet at The Arboretum Centre, 200 Arboretum Rd.

Feathers & Beaks

May 3, 1–2:30 pm, Eramosa River Trail

Discover our beautiful backyard birds.
Meet at Wooden Covered Bridge near The Boathouse

Roots & Shoots

May 10, 1–2:30 pm, Starkey Hill

Trees are budding and blossoms are filling the trails!
Meet at Starkey Hill parking lot, 735 Arkell Rd.

Fins & Shells

May 24, 1–2:30 pm, Eramosa River

Explore a watery world of crustaceans, insects and fish.
Meet at Barber Scout Camp entrance, 733 Stone Rd. E.

Scavenger Hunt

May 31, 1–3 pm, Preservation Park

How many animal and plant species can you find?
Meet at Hanlon Creek Park, 505 Kortright Road W.

For full program details: natureguelph.ca/nature-in-the-city

Proud to be part of the 2Rivers Festival

In partnership with the GPL

Guelph Public Library
Explore • Connect • Thrive

